Easter Sunday April 1, 2018

“Jesus Christ is RISEN! Alleluia! Alleluia!”

“He is RISEN indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia!”

Last week at this time we were just starting the drama. Now we are fully engulfed in the sheer joy of this celebration of our salvation. We have re-lived all the thrills of the various celebrations of Palm/Passion Sunday. We have prayed through the solemnity of Tenebrae and Holy Thursday. We have borne the weight of the grieving of Good Friday and now come to the greatest, highest holy time of our whole year it is EASTER!! What a tremendous opportunity to celebrate, lift our hearts and spirits and know life.

New life is all around us. Jesus has broken the chains of death, pain and sorrow and won for us the war of victory over sin by rising from the dead. Our newest Christian brothers and sisters all over the world are experiencing the multiple layers of Sacramental new life. They have been cleansed in Baptism. They have been strengthened in Confirmation. They now are called to continually be nourished through the repeated invitation to the Eucharist for the rest of their lives. They inspire us to be more alive in our own faith. We respond: “Alleluia!”

All of us are like the women who went to that empty tomb on that first day of the week. We are called to proclaim with our very lives, Jesus Christ is RISEN! Alleluia! We are amazed that all Jesus taught in his short life of ministry is coming true. We see the miracles our God performs all over our lives and we might be confused or disoriented but eventually, we see and believe.

We continue reliving the Pascal Mystery of Jesus’ life, death and resurrection reflecting on the way this mystery has been lived in this holy and historic Church of San Felipe de Neri here in Old Town Albuquerque. We clearly are aware of the MANY people who have served this community in the 40-days of Lent and in all the preparations for this holy week and now the 50-days of Easter that we begin today. As we renew our baptismal promises today, we celebrate with our other brothers and sisters in faith who were baptized last night at the Easter Vigil as well as the others who received Sacraments also. We are most grateful for the witness of these and their sponsors who like us have committed to continue walking with them on their pilgrim journey of faith.

May we keep the spirit of rejoicing alive in our hearts and in our lives this Easter Season and always. AND, May God bless us today and always!

April 1, 2018 Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

PROCLAIM THE RISEN CHRIST

On Easter morning everything--the spring weather, the flowers, birds and butterflies, the people around us in their finery, the beautiful liturgy and music--everything seems to bear witness that Jesus Christ is risen today! Like the eyewitness accounts in today's scriptures, the glorious and joyful life all around us helps us to believe the good news of the Resurrection and sing "Alleluia!"

In the scriptures today we hear from Peter and Paul and John. All three speak with conviction about witnessing the resurrected Christ. John's Gospel account includes Mary of Magdala, who also was privileged to witness the Resurrection and tell others the good news. On this glorious Easter Sunday can we ourselves give eyewitness accounts that Jesus Christ is risen today, alive and active in our lives?

San Felipe School News

Students in PreK-8th grade were recognized for the Christ-like behavior! Each month students focus on one School-wide Learning Expectation. San Felipe de Neri School Students are Followers of Jesus, Active Learners, and Servants of Christ. In March, students will focus on being examples of Active Learners who strive for high achievement.

Happy
Easter

But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him. - Acts 2:24

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

THE LIGHT OF EASTER

In the first reading, Peter boldly and clearly proclaims the good news of Jesus' resurrection. Here it's important to observe that Peter, in the verses just before his speech, was profoundly disoriented by a vision. The vision, contrary to assumptions from his heritage, suggested that the Holy Spirit is inviting Gentiles, without obstacles, into the Jesus community. It began to dawn on Peter that the gospel is for everyone, without exception. The barriers between peoples were being blown open by the Spirit. Peter began to see a new and brighter world. Most of us, most of the time, try hard to protect ourselves from being disoriented. Our traditions and past experiences keep us grounded and secure. However, often we grow in maturity and insight precisely because we are knocked off balance. God disrupts us enough to open us to what God wishes to teach us. We move from blindness to sight when we are first disoriented by the light, let go of the comfortable darkness, and open our eyes to new insight. As we begin the Easter season, the light of Easter is indeed bright. Easter reveals a world of opportunities to care for others and an abundance of grace to guide and sustain us.
