Thank you to Deacon Tom Perez for serving at our ceremony and providing us with a great example of service to God's people.

Thanks to Carmen and Chris Cavnar for their patience in teaching us about the faith in this sacramental year; for answering our questions and for leading us to our Confirmation.

Thank you to the parents and relatives who have provided the example of Christian faith throughout the lives of the Confirmandi.

Thank you to the sponsors who have given spiritual support throughout the Confirmandi discernment and will continue to do so throughout their lives.

Thanks to all those who prepared our church for the Confirmation Ceremony. All of you did a great job, it was beautiful.

We would like to thank Erick and the choir for providing the music, as well as the ushers, and servers who volunteered to make that day a reality.

Last but certainly not least, I want to thank our Confirmandi. You're very loved by your families, your sponsors, Carmen, Chris and I. I know that every day we see you is a great day for us. Do not ever forget that God loves each of you an incredible amount. As Monsignor Luna said, pray and open your hearts to serve others and don't ever forget God has a plan for all of you to become the best version of yourselves, whatever positive endeavors you undertake.

SAVED BY THE ONE WHO WAS REJECTED

Some city teenagers often scorn and reject farm kids. Yet it's no exaggeration to say that humanity owes its life to farmers who care for the world's crops and livestock. This week's scriptures remind us that Jesus was as rejected as a shepherd, a farm boy, yet we owe our very lives to him.

In this Sunday's reading from the Acts of the Apostles Peter tells the people that salvation comes through Jesus Christ, the one who was rejected. In John's letter we hear that we have become God's beloved children through Jesus, whom the world did not know. Lastly, in the Gospel Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd who "lays down his life for the sheep" (John 10:11). Will you join Jesus in laying down your life for God's beloved flock.
