Community Service

© J. S. Pallich Co., Inc.

Beginning in January thru the end of the Religious Education school year, 2nd Year Confirmation students are required to take part in community service projects on a monthly basis. I have scheduled us to volunteer at the Roadrunner Food Bank on Saturday, January 12th from 8:00 am to 11:00 am. Roadrunner Food Bank is located at 5840 Office Blvd. NE, Albuquerque, NM 87109.

Roadrunner Food Bank of New Mexico has been serving New Mexico's hungry since 1980. As the largest Food Bank in the state, they distribute more than 300 million pounds of food every year to a network of hundreds of partner agencies such as St. Vincent DePaul, food pantries, shelters, group homes, soup kitchens, low-income senior housing sites, and regional food banks.

Honor Your Parents

Students, your relationship with your parents is the central relationship in your life. It is now, and it always will be. Whether your parents are alive or not, whether you live with them or not, your bond with your parents is powerful.

This relationship is so important that it is the first human relationship to be mentioned in the Ten Commandments. The Fourth Commandment is: Honor your father and your mother. God works in powerful ways through his commandments, so next time your parents ask you to do something, or encourage you to consider something, you may want to politely and humbly say yes.

San Felipe de Neri School Corner

The Epiphany of the Lord reminds us to always be in awe of the birth of Jesus! May we be like the three Wise Men and always offer our greatest gifts to Jesus! The gifts of prayer and love will guide us into this New Year! Always, follow The Light of Christ!

FINDING GOD

Magi from the east arrived, looking for the newborn king of the Jews (Matthew 2:1-12).

The splendid magi, all sparkle and dash and solemnity, march right up off the pages of Matthew's Gospel and into our churches today. Matthew alone tells us this grand and seductive story so that we might see the light and know that the child these magi visited is the fulfillment of prophecy, the king of the world that stretches to the magi's home country and beyond, right down the ages to us.

We too see and understand anew. Like the magi, our patron saints for this day, we see in the newborn child the king of the universe and light of the world. Like the magi, we find in ourselves a new faith and a new life. Like them, we return to our home by a new route.

We are asked to come away from this festive season ourselves renewed and awake to the presence of God among us. We are asked to find God where God is to be found, to be attentive and surprised and ready to bow down in adoration and to offer our gifts.

Justice, Only Justice,
You Shall Pursue
