RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Thanks

I would like to thank everyone who helped with making luminarias and with every aspect of our Live Nativity. This could not have been completed without your positive attitudes and hard work.

Religious Education Holiday Class Schedule

After the Christmas and New Year's Holidays classes will begin again on January 6th and 8th.

2nd Year Confirmation Students Community Service

Beginning in January thru the end of the Religious Education school year, 2nd Year Confirmation students are required to take part in community service projects on a monthly basis. Soon I will have the schedule of when we'll be volunteering at Roadrunner Food Bank.

Roadrunner Food Bank of New Mexico has been serving New Mexico's hungry since 1980. As the largest Food Bank in the state, they distribute more than 300 million pounds of food every year to a network of hundreds of partner agencies such as St. Vincent DePaul, food pantries, shelters, group homes, soup kitchens, low-income senior housing sites, and regional food banks.

Community

We all need people to do life with – friends, family, and community to encourage us and challenge us. When we are young, we find ourselves involved in various communities – school, parish, sports, and neighborhood. But as we get older, we have to actively seek out community. Part of the genius of Catholicism is the parish community. Parish life provides a natural and powerful opportunity for us to encourage, challenge and support each other.

I want to encourage you to get involved with San Felipe de Neri more each year. To paraphrase John F. Kennedy, "don't ask what San Felipe de Neri can do for you, ask what can you do for San Felipe de Neri". It is through service and sacrifice that we are very often led to the beautiful plan God has for our lives.

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION

First Friday adoration of the Blessed Sacrament takes place from 7:00am until 12:00pm in Gasparri chapel. Please come to adore and spend time with Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament every First Friday of the month.

A CHRISTMAS LETTER FROM JESUS

Dear Children,

It has come to my attention that many of you are upset that folks are taking my name out of the season. Maybe you've forgotten that I wasn't actually born during this time of the year anyway and that it was some of your predecessors who decided to celebrate my birthday on what was actually a time of pagan festival. Although I do appreciate being remembered anytime. How I personally feel about this celebration can probably be most easily understood by those of you who have been blessed with children of your own. I don't care what you call the day. If you want to celebrate my birth just, GET ALONG AND LOVE ONE ANOTHER. Now, having said that, let me go on. If it bothers you that the town in which you live doesn't allow a scene depicting my birth, then just get rid of a couple of Santa's and snowmen and put in a small Nativity scene on your own front lawn. If all my followers did that there wouldn't be any need for such a scene on the town square because there would be many of them all around town. Stop worrying about the fact that people are being "politically correct" calling the tree a holiday tree, instead of a Christmas tree. It was my Father who made all trees!! You can and may remember me anytime you see any tree. Decorate a grape vine if you wish: I actually spoke of that one in a teaching explaining who I am in relation to you and what each of our tasks were. If you have forgot that one, look up John 15: 1 - 8.

If you want to give me a present in remembrance of my birth here is my wish list. Please choose something from it.....

1. Instead of writing protest letters objecting to the way my birthday is being celebrated, write letters of love and hope to soldiers, or to anyone else who is away from home. They are terribly afraid and lonely this time of year. I know, they tell me all the time.
2. Visit someone in a nursing home. Visit a lonely neighbour. You don't have to know them personally. They just need to know that someone cares about them.
3. Instead of writing to your boss complaining about the wording on the cards his staff sent out this year, why don't you write and tell him that you'll be praying for him and his family this year in a religious Christmas card.

4. Instead of giving your children a lot of gifts you can't afford and they don't need, spend time with them. Tell them the story of my birth, and why I came to live with you down here. Hold them in your arms and remind them that I love them.

5. Pick someone that has hurt you in the past and forgive him or her.

6. Did you know that some people in your town will attempt to take their own lives this season because they feel so alone and hopeless? Since you don't know who those people are, try giving everyone you meet a warm smile. It could make the difference.

Also, you might consider supporting the local Hot-Line: they talk with people like that every day.

7. Instead of nit-picking about what the retailer in your town calls the holiday, be patient with the people who work there. Give them a warm smile and a kind word even if they aren't allowed to wish you a "Merry Christmas"; that shouldn't stop you from wishing them one.

8. If you really want to make a difference, support a missionary, especially one who takes my love & Good News to those who have never heard my name. You may already know someone like that.

9. Here's a good one. There are individuals and whole families in your town who not only will have no Christmas tree, but neither will they have any presents to give or receive. If you don't know them (and I suspect you don't) buy some food and a few gifts and give them to the Salvation Army, the local homeless charity, or some other charity which believes in me and they will make the delivery for you.

10. Finally if you want to make a statement about your belief in and loyalty to me, then behave like a Christian. Don't do things in secret that you wouldn't do in my presence. Let people know by your actions that you are one of my followers.

Please check out the list above and get to work; time is short. I'll help you, but it's all up you. And do have a most blessed Christmas with all those whom you love; and remember, that as I LOVE YOU I hope you will also love everyone else!

Life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass - it's about learning to dance in the rain.

Thank you.

From Jesus
